Do you have any special health issues with this pregnancy?

Why did you decide to take this class?

List three specific things you hope to learn in this class:

What have you read about pregnancy and birth? Have you taken any other classes?

What do each of you do for work? When are you going back to work after the baby is born?

I'm here to answer whatever questions you might have about pregnancy, labor, birth, and parenting. Especially the ones that are bugging you, but you're not sure to ask, those questions that you're afraid are "stupid questions." Please feel free to list on the back some of the questions you've been wanting to ask someone.
